

Satellite Radio deserves unrestricted rights in its transmission of News, Traffic and Radio. Let commercial radio compete with Satellite Radio in a free market place. Commercial Radio is worried that they will lose value in their stations. It is incumbent that technology keep pace in both commercial and Satellite radio. Let the consumer make the choice not the FCC.